TRIP TO AAREY FOREST

22nd February, 2022

Goregaon, Mumbai.

A field trip to Aarey Forest was organised by the Department of sociology, Rizvi college of Arts Science and Commerce on 22nd February 2022 for the students of SYBA . A group of 30 students had joined for the trip along with Dr. Mariyah and Prof. Shahida.

At 8am in morning the students gathered near Goregaon East ticket counter and took a BEST Bus for Aarey colony, it is locally available and very convenient. Our first stop was at Adani where the Metro Car shed was to be built originally. We observe the affected area and spoke to the locals to understand the severity of the issue. Next halt was at the location of Aarey hospital where after the breakfast a field work was conducted with the locals residing in the forest vicinity. Despite falling in the jurisdiction of Aarey colony is in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region the tribal still face problems like power cut, shortage of water, no sanitation, no school, etc. after the interview we moved ahead found a Balwadi runs by the NGO, where the kids aged between 2 to 6 years were involved in fun related learning. The students spent time at balwadi and clicked pictures and played with the kids and distributed the chocolates and other eatables with them.

Later we moved ahead for a little enjoyment at Chota Kashmir for enjoying the view of nature through boat ride and other fun adventure activities. The students ended their day with good memories and learning and a little bonding with our classmates and teachers.
